

Deputies Graduate and Deputy King receives Multiple Awards

Deputy Brendan King, Deputy Joseph Kuhn., Deputy Gregory Gullace and Captain Mike Sager

Deputy Brendan King was honored by his class by being chosen as class representative. He received the award for Top Physical Fitness and the Chuck Murray Award. The Chuck Murray Award is given to the Deputy reflects honesty, the highest ethical behavior and expresses exemplary teamwork. The ceremony was hosted by Edward J. Evers, Director Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy. Deputy King gave the class remarks and started by saying, “Well, we all made it, thank Goodness! I had forgotten how tiring it was to sit in a classroom, nearly 8 hours a day, for months at a time. In all seriousness, the class would like to thank all those from the Academy who made this possible”.

Sheriff Fox is proud to welcome his new deputies and is always humbled by the outstanding performance and dedication shown by all the awards that have been won.

Deputies Gregory Gullace, Joseph Kuhn and Brendan King graduated from the Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy on December 9, 2005. The Deputies from the graduating class consisted of 11 different jurisdictions.
